SOULS WON BY LOVE

Bishop Montgomery Preaches on Mission Work.

RESPECT FOR THE HEATHEN

Nothing Can Be Gained by Holding Over Him the Threat of Eternal and a New Convert to the Reli-

Bishop Montgomery, Secretary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, occupied the pulpit of the Pro-Cathedral the duty that devolves upon followers of that faith in spreading the Gospel to the than at any time before. uttermost ends of the earth, formed the subject of an interesting sermon.

'Was there ever," he said, "a human being to whom in some way God did not dresses-the gifted Dr. McIlyane, speak? I cannot conceive that there has ever been one, be he heathen or cannibal, to whom God did not in some way reveal Himself. For that reason we should be very tender when we speak of the religions of the world. The man who is purely contemptuous of the worship of any sect or country is beneath the name of gentleman. The best Christian is he who will respect that religion in which he may have no faith, but which he knows is regarded with reverence by others. Those manifestation of the life of God. missionaries who approach their work. not in a spirit of antagonism, but with the desire to obtain an interchange of thought with those whom they seek to and profound, but which did not for a convert, will accomplish the greatest moment rise above the heads of his

Invite Them to Reason.

in them there is food for thought for clergyman was translating the Bible, Andrew must have ingrained into you with the aid of a native, who was not very souls. We must make God a s the Gospel of St. John, Behold, what manner of love hath the Father that we he requested that it be translated.

returned to him saying, 'Master, It cannot that you are right. This is my transthe Father bestowed upon us that we of the God of the Christians?

Teach the Story of Love.

world that tale of Divine love exemplified beloved Son is a glorious opportunity.

of the earth stand shoulder to shoulder Andrew filled the air: facing the Father upon His throne, when they see the light of His divine counnow call 'heathen' may point an accus finger toward us and say, 'And you knew of this and never told us. That is the fear that haunts me, and that is why I am urging a continuance of efforts in General Convention of the Episcopal sionary, but those of the highest educa-tion and talents can do no better than to devote their lives to this service of God."

SHORT OF MEN TO MAN GUNS.

tion of State Militia Coast Artillery.

The shortage of enlisted men in the command of such departments.

PARAGRAPHS BY WIRE.

Lockport, N. Y., Sept. 29.-James Tracey, a machinist, died of grief at his home within two minutes after the death of his daughter Anna, who

New Brighton, Pa., Sept. 29.-It costs

en increased 10 per cent. Lansing, Mich., Sept. 29.-Following her husband into the ceilar, Mrs. William Sill, of De-witt, aged thirty, threw her arms about his neck and, after kissing him, confessed that she had taken poison an hour before and was beginning to feel its effects. "This is my last kiss," she ex-claimed before dying, taken from the residence of P. O. Green was found in a near-by field wrapped in a woman's handker-chief. The imprint of a woman's shoe in the ground leading from the house to the loot makes the police elieve that a number of recent robberies here are

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 29.—After having been regarded as deed for fifteen years, Charles Finley has written his consin, Joseph Finley, an employe in the Presbyterian Hospital, that he is alive and wealthy. The missing man was picked up in a wreck and taken to Australia, where he is now comer of a shear ranch.

Phone Main 3300 When You Return. Subscribers returning from their sum-mer home who desire to have their paper sent to their city address will please 'phone Main 3300.

EVENSONG IN GROVE.

CONTINUED FROM PAGE TWO. an unusual address and sank his words

ep into the hearts of his hearers. Bisop Nuttal said in part:
"Many people are diffident in exercising that power which les in them for good; they hesitate to let their tongues and actions do that which their conscience rompts them to do. They must be shown ow they can do it, and they must be aught that they can do it. "To do this the brotherhood must stick with other organizations; it should not be used as a money collecting agency; it is spiritual; it must lead to a communion idual effort is the special mean that must be used by brotherhood men-this is the most useful and efficacious sonal influence, and it has the advantage that it is possible to every man."

At the closing meeting of the conven-tion last night in Continental Hall President Houghteling was the occupied the pulpit of the Pro-Cathedral last night. Missionary work was his the assemblage when he said he was theme, the bishop having spent years in sorry that they had to leave each other teaching the gospel in Tasmania, India, but glad that they had met each other, and the South Sea Isles. The methods by which souls are won to Christianity, and to pray harder and think harder during thought last night. Three speakers, by Pittsburg: the brilliant-minded, logical Bishop Jacobs, of ancient St. and the deep-voiced Bishop Gailor, of orators was "The supreme surrender of man to God," and Dr. McIlvane was the

He said that Christianity is not easy that when the real secret of Christ's lif and death and suffering begins to dawn

The Lord Bishop of St. Alban's. The Lord Bishop of St. Alban's follower with an address which was theological youngest hearers. He said, in part:

"The keynote of the brotherhood mus "Is it not better to say to the learned be the words of St. Paul; 'What will you Buddhist: 'You are a profound thinker have me do?" It is a response to an and philosopher. From out of your appeal; to the appeal of one who has knowledge give to us an opinion as to died for us, and who loves us; one who these facts which we present. That they asks because He has given. He appeals are facts there is no gainsaying, and for what He has done for us; appeals when He has a right to demand. loved the world that He gave His bes to it, His Son, and it is on this that H "In India a number of years ago a bases His appeal. This you men of a Christian. Coming to that portion of render of everything that we are; it must should be called the children of God? the world belongs to the sons of God, and requested that it be translated. that they have only to reach out their within an hour the disciple of Buddha hands to get it.

Farewells Are Said.

The most solemn part of the programme, the farewell meeting, followed. allowed to kiss His feet.' Is President Houghteling, with sympathetic dentially it was only a light shower and there not a lesson to be learned from the emphasis, read the memorial roll, the did little harm, though the standing upon the the president of the convention began his But to give to the uttermost ends of the the brotherhood hymn was taken up in gratitude. As the great doors of Con-tinental Hall closed the lighted streets

RICHMOND AWAITS BISHOPS.

Church Meets Wednesday. Special to The Washington Herald.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 29,-Three hundred years after the first Episcopal service was read on American soil at Jamestown Isand, in Virginia, the general convention nold its triennial sessions in Richmond, the first session on Wednesday of this week.

The historic importance of this gather-Coast Artillery Corps is pointed out in the annual report of Brig. Gen. Arthur of American Episcopacy on Virginia soil, Murray, chief of artillery of the army, but because it was in Richmond, and The maximum number of enlisted men the State capital, where the House of pow authorized for the sun defenses of yond the most favorable expectations I the Lerd Bishop of London will deliver J. H. Radtke yond the most favorable expectations I had formed. Both regular and militia officers and men report that the exercises were in a very high degree interesting and instructive."

The Lerd Bishop of London will deliver an address to the students of the University of Virginia to-night. To-morrow morning, while Bishop Gibson hurries to Richmond for the covariant in the Lerd Bishop of London will deliver an address to the students of the University of Virginia to-night. To-morrow morning, while Bishop Gibson hurries to Richmond for the Country of the covariant in the Lerd Bishop of London will deliver an address to the students of the University of Virginia to-night. To-morrow morning, while Bishop Gibson hurries to Richmond for the University of Virginia to-night. To-morrow morning, while Bishop Gibson hurries to Richmond for the University of Virginia to-night. To-morrow morning, while Bishop Gibson hurries to Richmond for the University of Virginia to-night. To-morrow morning, while Bishop Gibson hurries to Richmond for the University of Virginia to-night. To-morrow morning, while Bishop Gibson hurries to Richmond for the University of Virginia to-night. cases were in a very high degree interesting and instructive."

Gen. Murray also recommends the eresting and instructive."

Gen. Murray also recommends the eresting and instructive of Holy Trinity Church, the visiting bishops ation of a coast defense department and the assignment of general officers appointed from the Coast Artillery to the command of such departments.

Gen. Murray also recommends the eresting the properties of Holy Trinity Church, the visiting bishops will visit Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson, near Charlottesville, going to Richmond on Tuesday afternoon in time to take part in the reconfiguration to the command of such departments. to take part in the reception tendered Finney, John M. Locke, H. S. Dixon, W. B. Dall, on that night by Bishop Gibson to the and J. L. Houghteling, in Lord Bishop of London.

Pastor Suspended for Kissing.

Columbus, Ind., Sept. 29.-Rev. John Wilmington, Del., Sept. 29.—Delaware tee of nineteen Methodist ministers on a the various people to take part in the Young Men's Christian Association

1736 G Street MONDAY, SEPT. 30-Association Institute schedule of day and evening classes becomes effective. TUESDAY, OCT. 1-Annual dinner, Religious Work Department, Banquet Room, 6:30 p. m.

FRIDAY, OCT. 4-Camera Club meets 8 p. m.

SATURDAY, OCT. 5 .- Opening session of Institute Debating Club.

Association Building open daily, 7 a. m. to 10:30 p. m. Young men who are strangers in Washington specially welcome.

Complete Daily Reports

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Convention

and the

Cathedral Foundation

Stone Laying

PRICE 15 CENTS

Mailed free anywhere in the United States; or can be obtained at the counting room of The Washington Herald, 734 Fifteenth Street N. W.

THE WASHINGTON HERALD CO.

Washington, D. C.

CATHEDRAL FOUNDATION STONE LAID

for us men and our salvation came down

Great Throng on the Grounds. Early in the morning people began to arrive at the cathedral grounds from all parts of the city. They came in all sorts and conditions of vehicle, even huge merchandise wagons being forced into service to bring out loads of men and women. Hundreds of automobiles arrived, and the private carriages stretched for half a mile along the road. It was lucky that this was so, as the street car service proved utterly inadequate to handle the people. By the time the procession started from St. Alban's Church to the cathedral site it is estimated that there cathedral site it is estimated that there The Cathedral Council and Bishops. heater were many distinguished people. The Roosevelt family occupied prominent ats, accompanied by Miss Hagner, Not from where the President sat was Prof. Andrew D. White, and right beliand Montgo, him sat Mr. John Pierpont Morgan, of York; beria;

Discussing the joint exercises held during last summer in the artillery district of New York, the report says:

"While the official reports have not yet been received, I am able to report, as a result of a personal visit to these artillery districts during the period of the exercises and from personal correspondence and reports in the daily press, that the exercises were successful between the period of that the exercises were successful between the period of the Bishop of London will deliver a short address, and where the period of the Easth Months, W. B. Dengtisk, C. C. Paylow, H. E. Robbins, John Motty, W. B. Dengt, F. A. Bowman, A. S. Gulbert, F. W. Thomas, I. A. Birmingham, Beal Bloomer, H. W. D. English, C. C. Paylow, C. C. Paylow, H. E. Robbins, John Motty, W. B. Dengt, F. A. Bowman, A. S. Gulbert, F. W. Thomas, I. A. Birmingham, B

Democrats are preparing to inaugurate a Presidential boom for Federal Judge George Gray. The boom will be launched at a meeting of the Young Men's Democratic Club next Wednesday.

Charge of kissing a member of his flock against her will, and was suspended from bishops vested in the little sanctuary, other hishops vested in St. Alban's reconstruction. At 11:45, to the glorious strains of Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise"-The world is very evil: The times are waxing late; Be sober and keep vigil. The Judge is at the gate; ice, and though the wind soughed through the branches of the trees, and the sky with a white stole, beautifully embroidwas being recited. Then, while the just at the time when the Nicene Creed a doctor of divinity. On his head he was being recited. Then, just as the wore a black beretta. Then came Mr. ousands of voices were saying: "Who Robert Weeks, bearing aloft the huge among the more prominent being:

and this was continually being augmented | Council and the Cathedral Chapters after | Doane, or Ababa, after which Bishop Satterlee, of Washing there were 20,000. In the vast congrega-tion gathered on the seats in the amphi-

The Bishop of London, the Bishop of St. Alban's, Murray, chief of artillery of the army. The maximum number of enlisted men now authorized for the gun defenses of the country, he says, is 14.351, and this is 4,080 short of one-half of one complete manning detail for the guns already mounted.

The remaining half of one complete detail required to place the coast defense of all harbors in the United States on a war footing can be obtained, Gen, Murray says, if each coast State can be induced to organize a corps of militia coast artillery, having the same organization as the regular Coast Artillery.

But because it was in Richmond, and the State house of Bishops will this year meet, that the State capital, where the House of Bishops will this year meet, that the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Richmond, and the State capital, where the House of Revolutionary of Limboratory of Limboratory of Limboratory of Limboratory of Limboratory of Limboratory of Richmond, and the State capital the State capital, where the House of Revolutionary Richmond, and Indianal Capital Revolutionary Richmond Revolutionary Revoluti of sight. packed with spectators. Down the middle aisle the processions marched and the two choirs and the band quickly took their appointed seats well up toward the back. At the derrick that was holding the foundation stone the lines of bishops split In twain and each line was conducted to its seats by the two head ushers, Mr. James H. Taylor and Mr. David F. Weaver. Assisting them were the following: Chimes Ring Out Hymn.

At 11 o'clock the regular morning prayer at St. Alban's Church was over and the Berkler, W. R. Bedell, Beale Bloomer, Edward L. Berkler, W. R. Bedell, Beale Bloomer, Edward L. D. Cross. Columbus, Ind., Sept. 29—Rev. John Royer, a popular pastor of Switzerland County, was tried to-day by a committee of nineteen Methodist ministers on a charge of kissing a member of his flock against her will, and was suspended from the ministry for one year.

BULLETIN

at St. Alban's Church was over and the chimes began to sound. They played in tume Cardinal Newman's beautiful hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light." In the meantime the various people to take part in the ceremony were vesting. The officiating bishops vested in the little sanctuary, other bishops vested in St. Alban's rective of the color of the members of the United States Marine Band were clad in vestments proper to the occasion.

At 11-45 to the glorious strains of Marine Page S. P. Minick, O. W. Roome, jr. P. F. Suttor, A. K. Seiden, George Salter, Frank So. Sutor, A. K. Selden, George Salter, Frank Sobotka, A. Streater, W. H. Singleton, O. Singleton, T. R. Taggert, H. H. Talmedge, E. E. Thompson, F. Thompson, J. H. Taylor, Dr. A. A. Taylor, J. W. Van Vieck, R. W. Van Horn, C. P. Van Horn, Maj. J. Young, W. P. White, F. M. White, A. Y. Gray, C. M. Mace, W. Steed, R. H. Keenan, and A. M. Povnton.

The times are saving late;
Be sober and beav right.

The Judge is at the gate;
The Judge who comes with might,
To terminate the evil,
To diadem the right—
A hymn which furnished President of the United Stands Uncovered, watching the procession file in. He was clad in frock coat and plain gray necktie and had a small gardenia in his buttonhole, and his simple across the soft sward and between two packed lines of interested people, who were kept from disturbing the march of the procession by purple ropes.

The pludge who comes with might,
To terminate the evil,
To diadem the right—
A hymn which furnished President of the United Stanes stood uncovered, watching the procession file in. He was clad in frock coat and plain gray necktie and had a small gardenia in his buttonhole, and his simple garb looked somber indeed as the twenty packed lines of interested people, who were kept from disturbing the march of the procession by purple ropes.

The police arrangements were most extend pace arrangements were most extended prominent, the signat of the interest of procession by purple ropes.

The police arrangements were most extended prominent, the signation of the control of the procession of the plaint of Maj. Sylvester himself. Precautions against fire had also been made, there being a number of firemen, with chemical extinguishers, on hand.

The procession was led by the Rev. Dr. Alfred Harding, rector of St. Paul's one noticed, prominent, the signet rings tant Episcopal Church in the Canada and proclaim that the majority of the bishop, the chapter, and diocese of Washington. And I do furthermore declare and proclaim that the bishop, the chapter, and diocese of Washington. The procession was led by the Rev. Dr. Alfred Harding, rector of St. Paul's feet tail, but E'shop McVickar, of Rhode of this diocese and city, but also of the whole Palestine lay for more than a thousand years across the procession was led by the Rev. Dr. Alfred Harding, rector of St. Paul's seven feet-and big girth attracted uni versal attention. Another picturesque feature that caught the eye of the public versal attention. were the high black gaiters buttoned to the knee, worn by most of the foreign bishops. It was truly a striking spectacle and cosmopolitan one, for here were young bishops and aged ones, venerable clergy and milisters so young they looked cherubic. Here were Indian, negro, and clergy, all gathered in the same high service and all raising their voices in a hymn of praise, in which President Roosevelt most heartily and enthusias-

Service Opened by Dr. McKim. The service was opened by the Right Rev. Randolph McKim at 12:20 o'clock. Raising his hand solemnly, the multitude was hushed and still and in a deep, clear voice, easily heard above the sighing wind, he led, while the congregation an-

Our help is in the name of the Lord; Answer-Whe hath made heaven and earth. Minister-Blessed be the name of the Lord; Answer-Henceforth, world without end. Answer-O Lord, make haste to help us, Minister-Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

Then, leaning forward, he made the presence of Almighty God, to begin a new sow or the Master and for man. We have come her

The Lord's Prayer and Collect, Then the service was taken by the Rev. Mr. Huntington, of Grace Church, New York, who ted in the Lord's Prayer, folowed by this collect:

O Lord, without whom our labor is but lost, and After a hymn, in which the vast congregation joined, Archbishop Nuttall, of the West Indies, went forward to the tern and read the lesson for the day, oody standing. This was the lesson

Colored Bishop Recites Creed.

There followed the singing of the Te bly repeating it after him. It was in the President spoke as follows: amphitheater. The Roosevelt family looked a little uncomfortable, and Mrs. Roosevelt speak to us because he has shown in his life that spoke to a Secret Service man, who went to the President to ask if he did not want an umbrella. The President smiled and shook his head. The White House foot, men were thoughtful enough to bring in, men were thoughtful enough to bring in, men were thoughtful enough to bring in, while it was raining, some waterproof wraps from the carriages, and these served to keep off the slight amount of star, and an umbrella. The President smiled and the served to keep off the slight amount of star, and the served to keep off the slight amount of star, and the served to keep off the slight amount of star, and the served to keep off the slight amount of star, and the served to keep off the clergy who were set.

S. Although many of the clergy who were set. umbrellas, there was really little need of were fully 12,000 people on the ground. Following the clergy came the Cathedral Doane, of Albany, then offered a prayer, until the service was over, so that then which came the bishops in column of ton, in a sonorous voice, cried, so that brought up by the officiating bishops.

Behold I lay in Sien a chief corner stone, elect, precious. recions.

Answer-And he that believeth in Him shall not be confounded.

Bishop—The Stone which the builder refused. Bishop-My house shall be called a house of prayer going down of the same. Bishop-Glory be to God on high;

Answer—And on earth peace, good will toward men.

Lowering the Foundation Stone.

Then, while the band played and the congregation sang the hymn, "Oh, little town of Bethlehem," the Bishop of Washington signaled to the workmen, twoild be to our shame and discredit if we failed to recognize that evil, if we wrapt our selves in the mantle of a foolish optimism and failed to war with heart and strength against the civil. It would be equally to our discredit if we sank back in sullen pessimism and declined to strive sank back in sullen pessimism and declined to strive. the ground just as the "Amen" was reached. As the stone slowly sank out reached. As the stone slowly sank out tween the creeks comes in the rivalry of the end faight it was curious to watch the deavor to see which can render best service to manbishops, as, with their ruffled wrists kind, which can do the work of the Lord best by resting on the edge of the platform, I thank you for the people best.

The side of the plt into which the foun dation stone was lowered was provided various parts of the audience, but some with wooden steps leading to the bot- of the stricter clergy cried "Hush-sh," its place it was followed by Bishop Satterlee, the Rev. Mr. Bratenahl, the cathedral architect, Mr. Henry Vaughan, and the members of the Cathedral coun, out again, and this time some of the by clergy bearing huge silver salvers, on The gavel used by Bishop Satter- clergy joined. lee in proving the foundation stone had been loaned by the Potomac Lodge of Freemasons at Georgetown, and was in the custody of the following members of the lodge: Mr. Lem Thomas, Mr. G. Davy, Mr. G. B. Wotty, Mr. MacCauley, is of great historic interest and was used recently by President Roosevelt in laying the corner stone of the Washington Masonic Temple. It was first used by President George Washington in laying the foundation stone of the first United States Capitol. The trowel used by the Bishop of Washington in spreading the cement on the granite stone was of silver, with an ebony handle, and

Store Hours Are Now from 8 Until 6; on Saturdays, Open Until 9 P.

WHERE YOU CAN HAVE IT CHARGED.

THIS IS THE LAST DAY OF THE SEPTEMBER DI

You have only to-day to select the Furniture and Floor Coverings, for when the store closes to-night the sale will be a thing of the past. It has been the biggest and most successful sale of the kind we've ever had.

There's 25 per cent off all furniture, and 15 per cent off all floor coverings.

Two facts to remember! You can select all you wish to-day and we'll makedelivery when you say, and you can have every purchase charged, and little amounts later on will pay the bill.

The congregation then sang the "Gloria Excelsis," after which, with a simple ncement by Bishop Satterlee, "The address. He spoke without notes, and his manner through his brief speech was emphatic, and he indulged in all of his usual gestures. As the President began speak the congregation seated itself. It was the first time during the service ch an opportunity had offered. The church, the people of your kindred churches, to one of which I belong, are growing more and more to realize that they must show by their lives how well that they appreciate the truth of the text that they shall be judged by their fruits. More and more we have grown to realize that the worth of the professions of the men of any creed must largely be determined by the conduct of the men making these professions; that conduct is the touchstone by which are professions; that conduct is the touchstone by which were the professions; that conduct is the touchstone by which are professions; that conduct is the touchstone by which were the professions.

they leaned forward and watched it out word of greeting to-day. During the speech of the President there were attempts at applause from tom, and when the stone had reached and the President raised his hand as if

> The Bishop of London's Reply, Without any pause, the Bishop of London rose to reply. He said:

> concluded, however, the applause broke

Mr. President, fellow-bishops, and brethren of the clergy and of the laity: I must first, on be-half of this vast assembly, thank the President of the United States, in the midst of all his multiand the Rev. Dr. Lindsey. The gavel is of great historic interest and was of silver, with an ebony handle, and bears an inscription to the effect that it had been used in laying the corner stone of the Girls' National Cathedral School, the Boys' School, and the Eye, Ear, and Throat Hospital.

Ceremony Soon Over.

The ceremony took but a few minutes, and when the Bishop of Washington is and when the Bishop of Washington is successor of St. Augustine which will be part of your cathedral when it is fully complete. I come as the successor of St. Augustine's co

I greet you here, Bishop Ingram, because you have used your office in the aid of mankind; that while you have served all, you have realized that the greatest need of service was for those to whom least has been given in this world. I believe so implicitly in the good that will be done by and through this cathedral, Bishop Satterlee, because I know that you and those with you, the people of your church, the people of your kindred churches, to one of which I below, are growing more and more to

Bishop Gibson Reads Lesson As soon as the Bishop of London had concluded, Bishop Gibson, of Virginia,

Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said: It is more blessed to give than to receive-acts, xx.25. Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring me an offering; of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart ye shall take my offering.—Exodus, Ye shall not appear before the Lord empty; every man shall give as he is able, according to the bless-ing of the Lord thy God which He hath given thee,— Deuteronomy, xvi.56,fi.

Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty; for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is Thine; Thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all.—I Chronicles, xxix:Il.

And then, while the convergencing sanguage.

And then, while the congregation sang the hymn beginning-Praise to the holiest in the height, the offering was taken up. The ushers moved among the congregation with small purple velvet bags, and when these were illed they were brought to the head of were well filled with coins and bills, and there were many checks, and much curiosity was evidenced over the fact that Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan deposited a check amount of the contribution could not be among the clergy that the check was or a goodly amount, as Mr. Morgan has always felt so kindly toward the Cathe dral project. The Doxology and Blessing While the money was being presented to the bishop, the people sang the doxology, after which prayer was offered by Bishop Paret, of Maryland. Then came

